Selected portions of Christ the King Christian Academy's Constitution:

Preamble

We, the baptized believers of our Lord Jesus Christ and part of His holy body the Church, responding in faith to the call of the Holy Spirit through the Gospel, and desiring to raise our children and the children of this community in the Christian faith, do hereby adopt this constitution and pledge ourselves to be governed by its provisions. This is to be done in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and to His glory.

Children are a gift from the Lord that He has entrusted to us for a brief time. (Psalms 127:3) Our children not only help to define our family, but in the future they will also shape society. Children cannot discover God, His Law, His grace, or His love on their own, but must be taught from an early age. Therefore, God has given us the responsibility to bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord. (Ephesians 6:4) The Old Testament admonishes parents to teach their children God's commands, and to teach them diligently. (Deuteronomy 6:7)

But the society in which we live is making this responsibility increasingly difficult. In a world based on humanistic values, Christian parenting becomes a complex task. Our children are subject to many influences beyond our control, and the government, which is steadily removing God (and specifically Christianity) from public life, cannot be relied upon to do what is in the best interests for our family, our children and our faith.

There are many influences in today's world which are beyond our control, and our time to work with our children is so short. Our direct influence may only last some 18 years. Meanwhile, the adolescent years are most strongly influenced by peers.

Though we may have more than one child, we can only raise that child one time. Once that time has past, it cannot be recovered. Formal schooling for most children consists of 30 to 35 prime hours per week spent in schools with humanistic values and principles. Yet, they only encounter perhaps one hour a week learning about their Christian faith in Sunday School.

Our primary concern in education is not only that students will learn facts and skills, but that their entire system of values, attitudes, beliefs, and character will be shaped for life, under the daily direction of people who share a common commitment to our Lord Jesus Christ. As Christians we are to live our faith and not be required to abandon our convictions as we enter the public sphere. That faith should guide and inform our studies and not be kept apart from them.

Many parents are acutely aware of these issues. The difficulty is that they lack viable options. A quality Christian education is either not available or is not affordable.

Christ the King Christian Academy exists for the purpose of helping Christian parents fulfill their God given mandate to teach our children our Christian faith. (Deuteronomy 4:9; Psalms 78:4-6) It is our objective to provide a quality education which nourishes both the mind and the spirit, which fosters love and service to one's neighbor, and which is anchored in the Truth of God's Word. Furthermore, it is our commitment to do this at a cost which the people of Stanly County can afford.

Chapter 2 - Statement of Faith

*2.01 We believe and confess the one true God who is Triune from eternity as God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. They are all of one substance, equal in power and glory. (1 Corinthians 8:4; Matthew 28:19)

*2.02 We believe and confess that God has created all that exists through Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. He has given people and still preserves their body and soul with all their powers.

*2.03 We believe and confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe. He is truly God, the Son of the Father from eternity, and truly man, born of the virgin Mary. At a great cost He has saved and redeemed the children of God who were lost and condemned. He has freed them from sin, death, and the power of the devil - not with or for any monetary compensation, but rather with His holy and precious blood and His innocent suffering and death. All this He has done that the believer may be His own, live under Him in His Kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as He is risen from the dead and lives and rules eternally.

*2.04 We believe and confess in the ongoing ministry and presence of the Holy Spirit who dwells in the hearts of all Christians. (1 Corinthians 6:19, John 14:26) He has called the believer in Christ through the Gospel, enlightened them with His gifts, and sanctified and kept them in true faith. Likewise, He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and keeps it united with Jesus Christ in the one true faith. Day by day He forgives the sins of all believers. On the last day He will raise the dead and give all believers in Christ eternal life.

*2.05 We believe and confess that the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the inspired Word of God, given as the only rule of faith and life, inerrant in their original writing. (2 Timothy 3:16) They record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.

*2.06 The proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.

*2.07 We accept the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the Christian faith.

*2.08 We believe and confess that God created the world from nothing and is sovereign in its governing. God's intention is for man to have dominion over creation while being a good steward of it. This life should be lived for the glory of God. (Genesis 1)

*2.09 We believe and confess that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God and rightly deserve eternal punishment. (Romans 3:23; 6:23)

*2.10 We believe and confess that God sent His Son to suffer and die for all people, thereby bearing their punishment, that those who believe in Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior may be saved from eternal death and be made new creatures in Christ. (John 3:16, 2 Corinthians 5:17) Salvation is the result of the grace of God through faith, not by any effort or merit on the part of humans. (Romans 3:21-27)

Chapter 3 - Statement of Purpose

*3.01 It is the purpose of the school to provide a sound academic education integrated with a Christian view of God and the world. The Bible is clear in stating the principles which underlie Christian education. The apostle Paul gave a comprehensive principle when he wrote of Christ, "For by Him were all things created, that are in Heaven, and that are in earth... and He is before all things and by Him all things exist." (Colossians 1:16,17) The apostle John said, "All things were made by Him and without Him was not anything made that was made." (John 1:3) God must be the starting point for Christian education.

*3.02 There is an important difference between the Christian and the non-Christian viewpoints on a given subject. Facts are morally neutral. However, the interpretation of the facts may produce diametrically opposed conclusions. It must be recognized that though knowledge is factually the same for the Christian and the non-Christian perspectives, no subject can be taught in the totality of its truth if the Creator, Christ, is ignored or denied. Christ is the key to education.

*3.03 Parents of our students should realize that the Word of God makes them responsible for the education of their children in school, as well as in the home and in the church. Thus they desire that their children will be educated at school with the consciousness that all truth is God's truth, including history, science, mathematics, language, and the arts. They also want their children to develop a system of values consistent with the Bible, a life-style which will be pleasing to God.

*3.04 The school is committed to assisting parents in instructing their children as to the benefits of embracing and developing a personal relationship with Christ and equipping them to fulfill God's total purpose for their lives, personally, academically and vocationally.

*3.05 In pursuit of these stated purposes this school shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, nationality, or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, employment policies, admissions policies, or athletic or other school-administered programs, and guarantees to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities accorded or made available to the students of this school.
